NRMEDD Hosts FEMA PER-385 Course
Improving Business' Financial Literacy and Management to Support Post-Disaster Economic Recovery

Northern Rocky Mountain Economic Development District is pleased to host the National Center for Disaster Preparedness in presenting FEMA PER-385, Improving Business' Financial Literacy and Management to Support Post-Disaster Economic Recovery.

This is an instructor led Zoom live session to be presented on Tuesday, July 20th, 2021. The class will run 9:00 am – 3:00 pm.

This will be the first time that this course is offered in Montana and will provide information on how communities can plan for economic recovery after a disaster. Areas covered will include developing pre-disaster plans for financial literacy, understanding disaster assistance programs that are available to businesses, the importance of business continuity planning, and understanding a business's vulnerability to disasters.

This course is free of charge and we encourage you to share the registration information with others. There is a limit of 60 participants for this event.
